

TOM RELLING

Born in Pasadena CA and raised in St. Louis MO, rocker-poet and guitar wizard Tom Relling landed in San Francisco in 2010, and quickly established himself as a musical presence in the Bay Area scene as a prolific songwriter, bandleader and producer. Musically, Tom's hard rock spin on power-pop has drawn comparisons to acts of the 60's and 70's like T Rex and MC5, with song craft akin to that of Marshall Crenshaw and Nick Lowe.

Tom has released a vast amount of music both under his own name and with various other projects, and has shared stages with an wide variety of artists; some of which include Vulfpeck, The Family Stone, Grahame Lesh, Robert Randolph, Monophonics, The Stone Foxes, and Zach Person.

Equipped with an expansive repertoire, dynamic stagecraft, and the top-tier musicianship of longtime bandmates Alex Dang-Lozano (drums) and Will Durkee (bass), the Tom Relling Band consistently delivers full-tilt rock n' roll performances, uplifting audiences with telepathic improvisations and boundless energy.

The new album "Peace In Love" is out now on Shaky Records.
